Four copies of a picture of the mark;

basic information of the applicant;

power of attorney;

priority document if applicable.

III. Application Process

IV. Validity Term

- The period of protection conferred by the registration of the mark is 10 years, renewable for an identical period or periods upon request of its owner and every time within the last year of the protection period, against payment of the fees due for the initial registration application.

V. Note

- The competent court may, upon request by any interested party, issue an enforceable decision to cancel the registration if it appears to the court that the mark has not been seriously used for a period of five consecutive years.
- A cancelled mark may be re-registered - in favour of its owner exclusively - within three years from the date of the cancellation.
